DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 15-19, 21-30 and 32-38 have been considered but are most in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 15-19, 21-30 are 32-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stimson et al. (US Patent No. 6,502,745) in view of Risafi et al (US Patent No. (6,473,500)

As per claims 15 and 17, Stimson et al. disclose a system and method of distributing an electronic cash card (see the abstract) comprising the steps of:

providing an unfunded cash card to a retail outlet from a purchase intermediary (which is a clerk at a point-of-sales);

associating the cash card with data in a data file by executing a software-implemented application on a computer device prior to the purchase of the cash card, wherein the data file indicates that the card has not been funded (column 5, lines 13-42 and column 6, lines 5-19);

Application/Control Number: 10/060,044

Art Unit: 3628

funding the cash card at the retail outlet via a purchase of the cash card by a purchaser for a purchase price but without selection of an identifier of the purchaser by the purchaser of the cash card (column 6, line 42 to column 6, lines 42-64 and column 8, lines 5-25);

updating the data file by executing a software-implemented application on a computing device with a value for the cash card substantially contemporaneously with funding of the cash card at the retail outlet (column 6, lines 5-41).

Stimson et al also teach submitting the variable amount or value to the retail outlet. (column 7, lines 10-43).

Remitting a fee or a commission to the retail outlet after the cash card has been funded or after activation of the cash card is not explicitly taught by Stimson et al.

Risafi et al disclose as system and method for selling and using a prepaid card. See the abstract. Risafi et al further teach remitting a fee to the retail outlet after a cash card has been funded. See column 10, lines 32 to 67. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to incorporate the teachings of Risafi et al into the system and method of Stimson et al in order to compensate a retail outlet selling the cash card.

As per claim 16, Stimson et al disclose the step of activating the cash card by registration with the purchase intermediary or the retail outlet (column 6, lines 42-64).

Art Unit: 3628

As per claim 18, Risafi et al disclose comprising providing the cash card to the retail outlet via a distributor of goods to the retail outlet other than the cash card (column 3, line 52 to column 4, line 16).

As per claim 19, Risafi et al disclose the step of selling the card to the retail outlet for an amount less than the predetermined value of the card (column 11, line 58 to column 12, line 52).

As per claim 21, both Stimson et al and Risafi et al disclose the step of providing an unfunded cash card further comprises ordering the cash card from a credit card provider. See column 7, lines 2-42 of Stimson et al. and figures 4, and 5a and 5b of Risafi et al.

As per claim 22, Risafi et al disclose the credit card provider associates the cash card with data in a data file. See figures 4 and 5a and 5b.

As per claim 23, the step of manufacturing the cash card with a cash card carrier for supporting the cash card would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art as manufacturers of cash cards or phone cards usually manufacture these types of cards to resell for profit.

Application/Control Number: 10/060,044

Art Unit: 3628

As per claim 24, the method of claim 23 further comprises the step of providing at least one of advertisement and coupons on the cash card. See column 17, line 65 to column 18, line 3 and column 8, lines 15-21 of Risafi et al.

As per claim 25, both Stimson et al and Risafi et al disclose the steps of: activating the cash card over a network by registering the purchased cash card with the purchase intermediary. Risafi et al further teach providing at least one of advertisement and coupons over the network for presentation to the purchaser. See column 17, line 65 to column 18, line 3 and column 8, lines 15-21; and column 8, lines 53-67 of Risafi et al.

Claims 26-30 and 32-35 contain similar limitations addressed in claims 15-19 and 21-25, and therefore are rejected under a similar rationale.

As per claim 36, both Stimson et al and Risafi et al teach activating the cash card over a network by registering the purchased cash card with the purchase intermediary subsequent to the purchase of the cash card and prior to transacting a purchase with the card. See both references.

As per claim 37, most cards include phone numbers of and customer service as contact information being provided on the cash card.

Claim 38 contains limitations addressed in claims 26-30 and 32-37 and therefore is rejected under a similar rationale.
